

سُورَةُ الْعَدِيَّتِ

The Gallopers

Theme:

The surah of loyalty

Allah (ﷻ) tells us the difference between the loyalty of the horse to its master and man to his Master.

Who is the Master of man, Allah (ﷻ)!

Horse to his master (man)

- Very loyal
- Very thankful. Just for the grass that he is fed with, he takes man for a ride and fights with him in war and can even give his life for his master.
- Satisfied on what he gets.

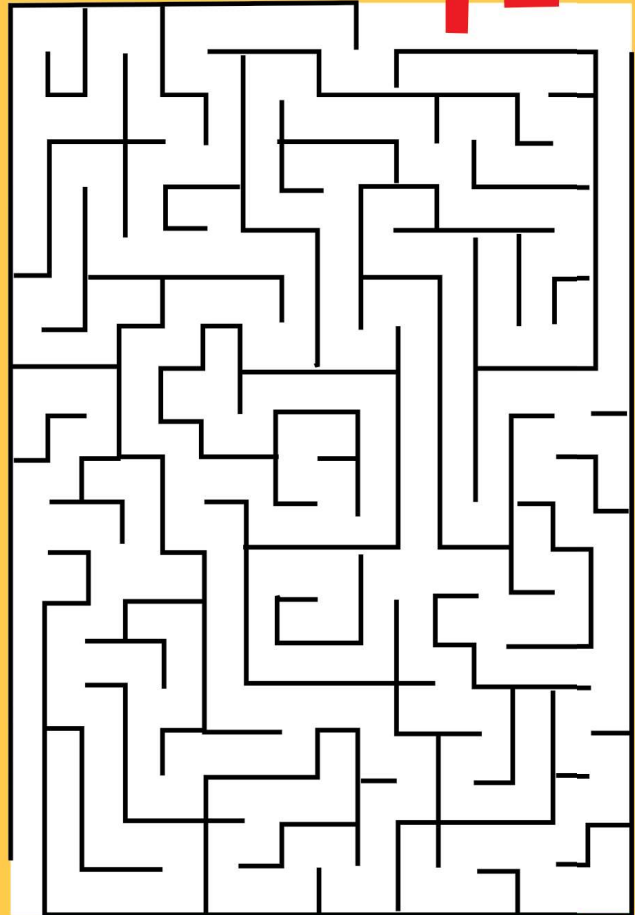

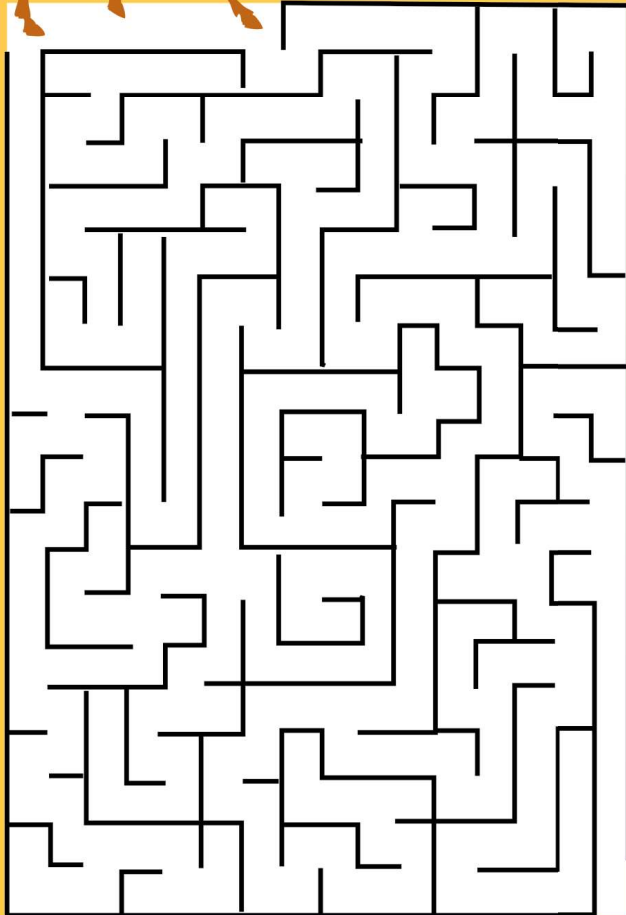

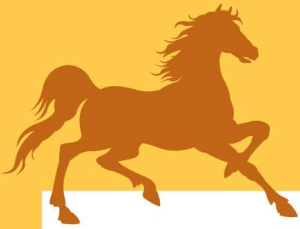

Man to his Master (Allah ﷻ)

- Not loyal.
- Knowingly very thankless. Enjoys all the goods given by Allah (ﷻ) and still remains disobedient.
- Always greedy for more and more till he dies.

Allah (ﷻ) warns that on the Day of Judgment man will be raised from his grave to answer about his disobedience and evil deeds which he had kept secret, but his Lord knew them all.

MAN & HORSE

Every creature has a relation of loyalty to its master. In the following activity trace the response of man and horse when their master calls them.

PRAYER
TIME

Evaluation

Answer the following questions

Why does an animal love and respect his master?

What is the attitude of man towards his Master?

