

سُورَةُ النَّبَاِ The News

Theme:

The surah of News

- Allah (ﷻ) tells us that the greatest news man should know is that he has to answer his deeds one day.
- Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He created this earth, mountains, clouds, gardens, the cycle of day and night and rain for us to enjoy till a fixed time only.
- A day will come when this entire created world will end and men will be called to see their records.
- The disbelievers who do not trust in this news and want to cross Allah's (ﷻ) limits will enter the hell fire where they will suffer with great scary punishments.
- The believers who remain conscious of Allah (ﷻ) will enter the bliss where they will be welcomed with heavenly gifts from their Lord.
- Allah (ﷻ) tells that He has warned man for the suffering and the pleasure and showed him the right way. Now it is up to him to accept in time or not.

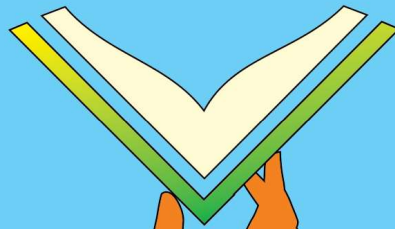

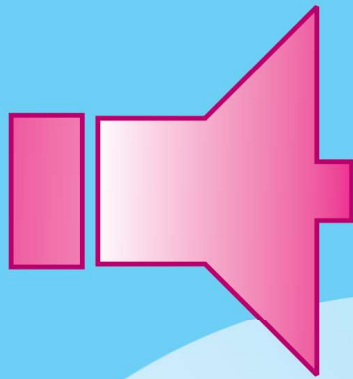

Working with the Surah:

Read these phrases from few ayats in this surah carefully then match them to corresponding pictures on the next page to know the signs of Allah (ﷻ) around you.

PRACTICAL TIPS

Trust in the news given by Allah (ﷻ) to us and prepare for the day when you will meet your Lord (and see your record) by living the life in the limits given to us by Allah (ﷻ).

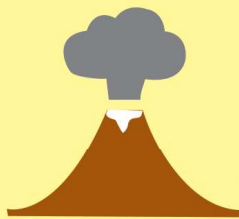

ACTIVITY

Collect a news about a natural disaster from a news paper and bring it to school.

Paste the news items in your copy and describe your feelings about the news and write them below that news.

Also write why you believe that this news is true.

Evaluation

Answer the following questions

What is the greatest news that man should know?

Look around yourself and list 10 items from nature that remind you of the Creator?

How should man react to this news?
