

سُورَةُ الْقَدْرِ The Power

Theme:

The surah of respect of the Qur'an

- Allah (ﷻ) tells us, the Qur'an has so much respect that the night in which it was sent down, became the most valuable night.
- It is the most powerful night to pray and thank Allah (ﷻ) for the valuable gift of the Qur'an. This night is called the "Laylat-ul-Qadr".
- In this night, Allah (ﷻ) sends down powerful angels to the earth to bring peace for those who are busy remembering Allah (ﷻ) during this night.

PRACTICAL TIPS

Qur'an is such a powerful gift from Allah (ﷻ) that the night in which it was revealed became the most valuable night. So if anyone will try to understand it, act on it and spread its message then he will become most noble near his Lord.

Revelation & Compilation of Qur'an

۱- لوح محفوظ ۲- کتاب مکنون ۳- امر الكتاب

Phase 1
انزال

From Loh-e-Mahfooz to lower heavens, sent as whole in the Night of Decree (Shab-e-Qadr)
سورة القدر

Phase 2
تنزیل

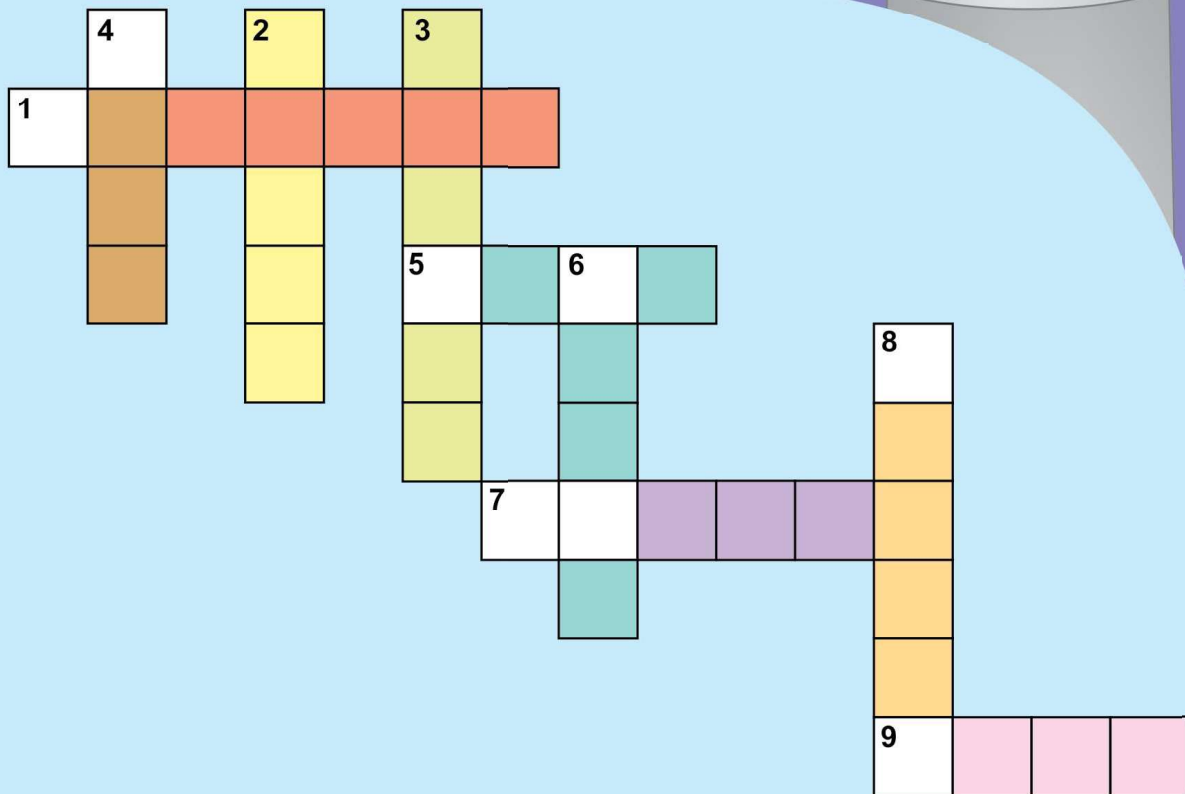

From lower heavens to the Qalb (heart) of Muhammad (ﷺ) through angel Gibrael (ﷺ) bit by bit as per situation. Took 23 years to complete.

Compilation

1. The compilation of Qur'an was completed the day the last revelation was sent down. Compilation was divine as Allah (ﷻ) revealed the Qur'an to the prophet (ﷺ) through the angle Gibrael (ﷺ).
2. In the days of Abu Bakar (رضي الله عنه), it was decided to bring Qur'an in the shape of a book when many memorizers (Huffaz) were martyred. A committee was formed for this task which analyzed all available resources of written scripts and the huffaz. So the Qur'an was brought in a book form.
3. In the days of Usman (رضي الله عنه), one dialect of Arabic language was made official and its copies were sent to all main cities.
4. In the days of Hijjaj bin Yousuf, araabs (اعراب) were placed on the text to standardize the recitation.
