

سُورَةُ النَّصْرِ

The Victory

Theme:

The surah of mannerism in victory

- Victory is the prize of hard work and all victory comes by the help of Allah (ﷻ) only.
- It is not an occasion of celebrations but at this moment one should humble himself before Allah (ﷻ) and seek forgiveness for his faults.
- One should seek Allah's (ﷻ) kindness attaching any success that he gets in his work, not to his own qualities, but to the help and mercy of Allah (ﷻ).

(The last of the surahs to be revealed as a whole. It was revealed on the occasion of the farewell pilgrimage of the Prophet (ﷺ))

The last sermon of the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ)

The Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) delivered his last sermon on the ninth of Dhul Hazzah (12th and last month of the Islamic year), 10 years after Hijrah (migration from Makkah to Madinah) in the Uranah Valley of mount Arafat.

The highlights of the sermon were.

1. Islam is the final religion.
2. The importance of worshipping Allah (ﷻ).
3. Rights of women over men.
4. Equality amongst all (blacks, whites, Arabs, Non-Arabs etc)
5. Everyone has to answer for his own deeds.
6. Hurt no one so that no one may hurt you.
7. Establish justice.
8. Every Muslim's life and property is precious to other Muslims.
9. Every Muslim has to spread the message of Islam.

In the end the Prophet (ﷺ) said "I am leaving behind me two things for you, Qur'an and the example of my life. If you follow these you will not fail".
